Interdisciplinary Arts Residency Program
Summer 2018 Call for Course Proposals (Deadline Extended)

Funded by the Cluster Hires Initiative through the Office of the Provost, the Interdisciplinary Arts Residency Program (IARP) enables the Arts Institute to support extended interdepartmental and interdisciplinary residencies each year for the benefit of all arts departments and programs of the university. IARP is currently accepting proposals for 1 to 2 summer arts residency courses to be taught during the 4 week summer session of May 21 - June 15, 2018.

WHAT TYPES OF COURSES TO BE CONSIDERED

We are looking for unique, co-taught courses that have never been taught before at UW-Madison. In accordance with the requirements of the IAR Program, courses must be interdisciplinary and available to students across disciplines, and will be listed under the Integrated Arts course subject listing (495). Instructor teams must include one UW faculty member paired with at least one guest artist (non-UW employee; emerging and regional artists will also be considered). Courses proposed should also strengthen the programmatic ties among individual departments, programs, and other campus and community arts entities. Please note that a public event is not a required component for the summer residencies.

Proposed courses must total 3 credits, but could comprise 1 or 2 courses over the 4 week period of May 21 - June 15, 2018. For example, teams can propose one 3 credit course OR two courses where one is worth 1 credit and the other 2 credits.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The Arts Institute will provide a budget for instructor salaries and course supplies. Funding strings will be provided to host department to ensure they get the credits for the course. AI will consider requests for additional course funds if a public event is included in the course proposal.

PROPOSAL PROCESS

Faculty and/or units eligible to propose a residency are: 1) academic departments; OR 2) officially recognized interdepartmental programs, centers, and institutes. Organizations outside of the university may partner on the course.

Please submit your full proposal for Summer 2018 residency in PDF format to emily.lewis@wisc.edu by noon on Thursday, November 30, 2017. You can expect notification by the end of December 2017, after the Academic Affairs Committee reviews each course proposal.
The Arts Institute is committed to working with departments to develop proposals that meet these guidelines. Emily Lewis, Residency Program Coordinator (emily.lewis@wisc.edu) is available for consultation and offering feedback on drafts of the proposal. Please contact Emily well in advance of the deadline if feedback is desired.

Interdisciplinary Arts Residency Summer Course 2018 Proposal Checklist
Due November 30, 2017

- Bios of Instructors
- Host department and other supporting departments (if any)
- Support letter from department chair
- Budget
  - Instructor salaries
  - Course supplies
  - Additional costs
- Descriptions of Course
  - Course content
  - Expected enrollment capacity (minimum of 10 is required)
  - Interdisciplinary nature of the proposed course and disciplines of students expected to enroll
  - Impact of the course

- Anything else you would like the committee to know